봄은 겨울이 궁금하다

Even so, don't you think he is being overly negative to me ?
I don't think it has to do with this one time. Have I done something wrong I don't know ?
Probably not. It took me a long time to get close to him also.

Han-Gyul.
Yeah?
When you wake up, 4 years is gone by. How would you feel?
Are you talking about Ga-UI?
You may try to catch up the lost time but your mind will probably be the same as 4 years ago.
Voice

When he woke up, the world he knew was 4 years older.

He may have caught up with lost time, but his mind would still be how it was 4 years ago.

Still young ...

He must have been afraid of how much the world has changed.

Han-Gyul told you, didn't he ?
I don't get why he told you though !
There are always people like you, someone who's overly curious and wants to dig into everything they can.

He was also afraid that others may view him differently.

For you, it's probably an interesting story to keep you out of boredom, but it wasn't easy for me !
I am finally getting back on track and I do not want to mess it up !
I ask you to keep a distance from me! I don't like you at all and just stay out of my life please !

Keeping a distance.

Avoiding contacts.

He insisted that he wanted to enter the same school and class with me, so after another test, they determined that he would be okay with high school junior (2nd grade) education level

And hiding behind his friend to do so.

And feeling comfort from grabbing his big friend's sleeve with his tiny hands.

Tiny Ga-UI.

Ga-UI... I wonder what he is thinking.
I wonder what he thinks about an old friend who got so much taller.
And I wonder why he thinks of me who befriended you.
I wonder what he thought when I granted him today.
And the tree ...
And the cosmos...
I wonder .....
What he thinks about them.
I am so curious.

And I want to see again.

I am not sure whether I was still half-sleep or not.

But his face.

That was beaming a gentle smile at me.

I want to see it again.
